

Revision history: Instructions for the preparation of data packages for the Index of Biodiversity Surveys for Assessments (IBSA)

Purpose of this document

This document summarises the revisions made to the Instructions for the preparation of data packages for the Index of Biodiversity Surveys for Assessments (IBSA) and the accompanying electronic templates and forms. These documents can be found on the Environmental Protection Authority (EPA) website at www.epa.wa.gov.au/templates-and-forms.

The instructions, and the accompanying electronic templates and forms, will be updated as the IBSA data standards are refined – particularly during the first year of IBSA’s operation. Users should consult the EPA website to ensure they have the most recent versions of these documents prior to using them.
